

ATTEMPT TO BURN ALEXANDRIA MILL

Aitchison Brothers Seem to Be Pursued by Firebug—Stable Destroyed Week Ago.

NEWS NOTES OF THE TOWN

Alexandria, Va., March 16.—What is thought to have been a deliberate attempt to burn the planing mill of Aitchison Brothers, Union Street, between Prince and Duke Streets, occurred at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The prompt detection of the fire prevented the destruction of the planing mill. The police are now engaged in a thorough investigation of the case, although no arrests have been made up to the present time.

A piece of waste thoroughly saturated with oil was found, it is stated, beside the engine-room, a frame structure, on the outside. Joseph Moore, who lives nearby, discovered the fire and obtained an extinguisher, had the fire subdued before the arrival of the fire apparatus.

Aitchison Brothers had a stable belonging to them destroyed by fire of an unknown origin a few weeks ago, and also on Sunday.

Other fires of unknown origin, most of them small fires, have recently attracted considerable attention here, especially in view of the fact that their origin in many instances remains a mystery.

Elks Burn Bonds.
The burning of a number of bonds issued two years ago by Alexandria Lodge of Elks on its own home will be the feature of its meeting to-morrow night. This ceremony will be in charge of Charles E. Marshall, secretary and treasurer of the board of trustees, and James Callan, also a trustee.

The splendid financial condition of the order makes it possible at this time to destroy considerable bonds.

District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler H. R. Trundle, Danville, Va., will to-morrow night pay an official visit to the lodge and there will be an initiation, and this will be followed by a social session. An interesting programme has been prepared.

Alexandria Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, at a meeting this afternoon, completed arrangements for its celebration of St. Patrick's Day to-morrow night at the Young Men's Sociality Lyceum Hall. There will be a musical and smoker. During the evening, addresses will be made by Leo P. Harlow and James O'Shea, the latter of Washington.

The Columbia Fire Engine Company will celebrate St. Patrick's Day with an open house at its home at 8 o'clock to-morrow night. Music will be furnished by a mandolin club, and during the evening there will be a number of short addresses. It is expected to be a social success.

Veteran Printer Dies.
George A. Abbott, a plate engraver, an employee of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Washington, died this morning at his home in West End, Duke Street, extended. Mr. Abbott was seventy-six years old and a native of New Hampshire. For many years past he had been employed at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Besides his wife, he leaves a son and a daughter. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

William H. Yateman died at 4 o'clock this morning at his home, 183 North Patrick Street. Mr. Yateman was seventy-two years old, and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Virginia Yateman, who was a dealer in household specialties, and was a native of Westmoreland County, Va. During the civil war he served as a member of the Eighth Virginia Regiment. He was a member of E. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, and the camp will attend his funeral, which takes place at 2 o'clock to-morrow morning at his late home, services to be conducted by Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church. The body will be shipped to Marshall, Fauquier County, Va., for burial.

At the annual meeting of the Board Motor Truck Company, held yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, the following directors were elected: T. C. Smith, W. E. Bain, George L. Appich, Robert S. Jones, W. A. Frost, Jr., G. L. Boone, J. A. Egan, and the first named was chosen president.

The funeral of Mrs. Susan Turner, wife of John W. Turner, took place yesterday afternoon from her late home, 45 North Columbus Street. The services were conducted by Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. G. A. Luttrell, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church. Burial was made in Union Cemetery.

Funeral services for Cornelius R. Van Aelst will take place at 4 o'clock to-morrow morning from the residence of W. P. Graves, 62 South Fairfax Street. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. A. Luttrell, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, and Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Burial will be made in the National Cemetery, this city, and will be private.

An attempt was made last night to rob the laundry conducted by Sing Lee, King and Commerce Streets. The window of the laundry had been raised and the police say a suit case removed therefrom. Sergeant Scott and Policeman Ferguson arrested Roy Beale on suspicion of knowing something of the affair.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY JAILER SHOT IN RAID

Officers Arrest Five of All-night Ball Party After Being Fired Upon.

BULLETS STOPPED BY OVERCOAT

As the result of a little celebration over in Alexandria County yesterday morning, in which large quantities of whiskey and a veritable colored gentry of those parts are said by the police to have played conspicuous roles, Jailer Johnson, of Alexandria County, and the jail horse, are each nursing half a dozen painful perforations of the skin caused by buckshot, several of the colored gentry are in jail, and the county is to offer a reward of $200 for the arrest of certain others.

The celebration took the form of an "all-night ball"—the authorities explain that the "ball" part of it refers principally to highball. The party started Saturday night, and at an early hour Saturday morning the spirit of conviviality was running so strong that Deputy Sheriff I. T. Palmer and several other officers decided to abate the nuisance.

Theodore Lyons, Eugene Ward, and Edgar Griffiths, colored, were arrested on the charge of selling liquor. Pending the arrival of Jailer Johnson with his wagon, the trio was held in a vacant building.

He finally drove up to the door with a flourish. As he stopped there was a flash and a report of a gun from the direction of the negro houses, and Mr. Johnson called out sharply that he had been shot. Deputy Sheriff Palmer ran to the negro settlement, and made a thorough search for the man who had fired the gun. George Ransom and John Minor were arrested, charged with shooting. No firearms were found.

Mr. Johnson received a number of shot in his arm. A heavy overcoat he was wearing had stopped some of the charges. The jail horse had stopped his share, too. Commonwealth Attorney Mackey said yesterday he would try to have the supervisors offer a reward of $200 for the culprits.

PARIS' HEALTH BETTER.
Will Not Try Friedmann "Cure" Until It Shows Results.

Rarapae Lake, March 15.—Rex Lee Paris, whose father-in-law, Charles H. Paris, offered Dr. Friedmann a million dollars for a tuberculosis cure, effective in 95 per cent of cases, is improving in health. He will not take the Friedmann treatment until the results of the vaccine used in the recent tests in New York are shown to be good.

Mrs. Paris, daughter of Mr. Emory, said yesterday: "We are awaiting the results of the tests in which Dr. Friedmann is giving his serum in New York. If the results warrant it, arrangements will be made for Mr. Paris to secure the treatment. It is impossible at this time to tell when this will be."

DOG HALTS MARRIAGE.
Tries to Retrieve Master's Coat Lashed Her Borrowed.

Cape Charles, Va., March 15.—A dog caused a panic among the wedding party and the guests at the marriage of Henry Roberts and Miss Mabel Hemmings, a daughter of the Rev. Ernest Hemmings, at Eastville.

The animal dashed up the aisle behind the wedding party, proceeding to the altar, and sprang upon the back of Arthur Addison, one of the ushers, grabbed the coat he was wearing between its teeth, and tried to tear the garment from the man's back.

Many of the wedding guests rushed from the church, believing the dog had rabies. The ceremony was halted until the animal was put out.

It appears that the dress suit worn by the ushers had been borrowed from the dog's master, C. T. Cobb. The animal, wondering into its master's room, and taking a seat of the missing cloth, followed it into the church and made the attack.

"I'M DONE SHOVELING."
Fireman Quits Work When He Learns of $47,000 Legacy.

Hathorn, Kans., March 16.—When Elmer Mann, fireman at $10.50 a week, threw down his shovel and washed the salt dust from his face at the Carey Coal plant, he said:

"I'm through with coal shoveling for a while."

Detectives who have been scouring the country for Manny found him here shoveling coal. As soon as he was found he was informed that an estate was waiting for him in Chicago.

This time the "estate" was bona fide. Manny found $57,000 in a Chicago trust company awaiting him, and learned that he was owner of a five-story building and a twelve-room house, making his total balance $47,000.

Manny sets this estate through his grandfather, John P. Manny, of Carey, Mich. Manny says he will invest his money in Kansas land.

"UNCLE VES" SOME WHISTLER.

Sticks to Old Tunes and Has No Use for Modern Stuff.

Owensville, Ind., March 16.—As a whistler, Uncle Ves Weeks, sixty-five years old, is ready to meet all comers. He lives in Owensville and his merry whistling is familiar all over town. It has all the melody and harmony and strength that a human whistle could possibly have. And as for technique, one can detect a big bunch of it when Uncle Ves pulls out the stops of his whistle.

But there is one thing Uncle Ves cuts out and that's a classic stuff—the dreamy, silver cloud and variegated sunset stuff. Uncle Ves won't whistle a minute on his whistle as a decided leaning toward the opposite.

And that is why Uncle Ves's whistle is a merry one. He stays close to the tunes of yesteryear, and he is said that these tunes are as nothing when anybody but Uncle Ves whistles them.

The other day Uncle Ves matched his whistle with that of a youngster and the latter was in a little bit of a quandary. When a man whistles like this, then let it be said with all tenderness that Uncle Ves is happy, always happy.

102; STILL HUNTS BARGAINS.
Woman Walks Mile to Attend "Cut-price Sale."

Waterloo, Iowa, March 15.—"Live in the open, cut moderately, exercise regularly and use tobacco if you feel like it."

This was the advice given by Mrs. Ida Spoor, of Waterloo, 12 years old, as she spouted while on her way to a bargain sale. Mrs. Spoor had walked more than a mile at that time, yet appeared fresh and active.

"This little walk is a mere step," Mrs. Spoor said, as she urged her husband to hasten to the sale before the rush started. The husband, seventy-three years old, found difficulty in keeping the pace set by his wife. She helped him up and down the curbing.

Mrs. Spoor does all her own housework, beats her carpets and lays them, and sometimes works for others. Her food is the plainest and the wind whistles through crevices in the clapboards of her little home. To such conditions, however, she attributes her longevity.

BRAVES WOLVES FOR MOTHER.
Child Drives Sick Parent Through Snowstorm to Train.

Grand Rapids, Minn., March 16.—A little heroine of the wilderness drove into this village to the accompaniment of the howl of wolves two hours after midnight, just in time to place her sick mother on board a train for Duluth, where she will be cared for in a hospital.

The girl was Edith Makala, twelve years old, daughter of Victor Makala, a settler living thirty-three miles north of here, and she made the long, dismal journey in the night in face of a heavy snowstorm, under conditions that might try the nerve of many a hardy woodsman.

The girl's father was at a lumber camp where he is employed, when her mother believed she must go to a hospital if her life was to be saved. The girl hitched her horse to a light sled, and making her parent as comfortable as possible in a couch on its floor, started for Grand Rapids as night began to fall.
